

Live, Newy and Progressive.
SEMI-WEEKLY,
At $2.00 per Annum.

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION
IN THE STATE.
Cor. plate Job Office
ATTACHED.

VOLUME XI.

HOPKINSVILLE. CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KY., OCTOBER 1, 1889.

NUMBER 79

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS, BY
CHAS. M. MEACHAM.
THEO. E. BARTLEY, Business Manager

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
One copy, one year, $2.00
one copy, six months, $1.00

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This powder, until refined, has no taste, strength or savor, and is not equal to any ordinary kind, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low cost, short weight brands now on the market. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 Wall St., N. Y.

BUSINESS CARDS

DR. J. A. SOUTHLAND,

PHYSICIAN and SURGEON

Office over First National Bank,

HOPKINSVILLE, KY

DR. F. M. STITES,

Opposite back of Hopkinsville,

HOPKINSVILLE, KY

Telephone Releance and Office

A. P. Campbell,

DENTST,

HOPKINSVILLE, KY

OPERATING A SPECIALTY.

Office over M. Frankel & Sons.

Dr. J. L. DULIN,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

McDaniel Block, Next door to Landes & Clark.

Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

GALT HOUSE,

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.

The Largest and Finest Hotel in the City.

Rates-$2.50 to $4 Per Day according to Room.

TUSSUES AND RUSSIAN BATHS IN THE HOUSE

Dr. Wm. M. Fuqua,

PHYSICIAN

AND

SURGEON,

Office Main Street, over National Bank.

6-11-17.

SHERWOOD HOUSE!

(Under New Management.)

T. C. BRIDWELL, PROPRIETOR.

Large Sample Rooms. New System Ball Beds.

RATES-$2.50 to $4 per Day.

Special Rates by the Week.

Corners of Main and Second Streets.

EVANVILLE, IND.

Road Carts! EVERYTHING ON WHEELS!

Ten per cent. Cheaper Buggies than anybody.

Don't buy before getting our prices and catalogues.

THE GED. W STOCKELL CO.

Manuf. at 100 Main Street, Hopkinsville, KY.

J. LIEBER'S

TONSORIAL PARLOR,

OVER HOOVER & BALLARD'S.

Shaving, Shampooing, Hair Cutting and Dressing, and all work in the line executed in the best of style. Give me a call.

Apr. 18th, '89.

J. LIEBER.

PROGRESSIVE BARBER SHOP

W. M. GRAY, PROPRIETOR.

High Street, between Main and Second Streets.

Shaving, Shampooing, Hair cutting, Shave, Shampoo.

Clean Towels. Everything new, neat and clean. Hair cutting, shaving and shampooing done in the very latest style.

BETHHEL

Female College.

Exclusively for Young Ladies.

The Fall Session will open Oct. 1, 1889.

AUGUST 1st, 1889.

It has been taken a university course of languages and been a successful teacher and also a native. Mrs. J. O. Rust will preside. A special department of the school will be given to the instruction of the young ladies. For further information call or address the President.

J. W. RUST.

Hopkinsville, KY.

PHOTOGRAPHS!

Before you have your photo taken, take care of the character of my work. You will be satisfied if my pictures are equal to the best. I have a large studio, and am able to make life-size portraits by the new process. Every thing is done in Picture Frame always on hand. CLARENCE ANDERSON, Hopkinsville, KY.

THE ENDURING HOME.

According to "Goth," Personality is Not to be Found in it. It is a perishable thing, and must reappear in the country. It is a house which is planned, which has historical or patriotic reminiscences remain in any of our cities. The John Jay cock house of Boston had to go at last; the old South Church might as well be torn down as to what it is, a kind of peddler's bazaar. The Hamilton House in New York barely escaped sacrifice by being turned over to a church. But country houses are generally found where they stood when the man of history put them up.

You never could find Shakespeare's house in London if he ever had owned one there. The hard of nature returned to his cattle marked town and there acquired and altered one of the best residences, and to this day it stands evidence which, like the old man's tomb, pulverizes the small beings who would eat a day's fam by oxidizing Shakespeare away. I have a ways noticed that when I went to hunt up the evidences of men of celebrity I found them nearly perfect in the courtesy and hardly ever recoverable in the city. If you want to see where John Jay lived so much longer than his contemporaries go to his farm at Bedford, forty miles above New York City.

If you seek for Delville Clinton's roof-tree, do not ask where it is in New York, but go out to Mapeth, in Long Island, and there close to the big cemeteries and oil refineries stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred years. In some of its parts, even though it is built of stone, it stands exactly what it was the statesman's home, where no doubt he had more self-respect than in all his political victories. He died very young for such a man, occupying the office of Governor, which is a seat of nations. You will find Oliver Pender's birthplace still standing among the rocks and sand-hills in Rhode Island. Men who only lived in towns left no more footprints than are to be found upon the brick pavements. Hence the even recurring desire not merely to buy a place in the country, but to build one there, if it is to be a town of its parts, even though it should consume most of it. He said that in order to work off the mental fatigues of Congress he had to go back and pitch hay upon the wagon as he did when a boy. You can locate Garfield had a house at Mentor, which will probably stand for two hundred

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

CHAS. M. MEAGHAM, Editor

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1889

New York Republicans have nominated John L. Gilbert for Secretary of State.

A matrimonial epidemic that carried off 60 couples struck Louisville last week.

A K. of P. Lodge was instituted at Elizabethtown last week with 18 charter members.

The Democrats have but little to expect from the elections in the four new States to-day.

Forty-four bodies have been recovered from the landslides at Quebec. At least one man is known to be under the debris.

Holzhay, the notorious highwayman of the northwest, escaped from jail at Bessemer, Mich., Friday morning.

J. W. McFeat, a member of the State Guards, was accidentally shot and killed while drilling at Harris' Court House.

The four new states in the northwest hold general elections to-day and the eyes of the whole country are turned in that direction.

The Republicans have nominated Jas. Chalmers for Governor of Mississippi and J. Q. A. Brackett for Governor of Massachusetts.

Grove Cleveland will preside over the "Sennet" Cox memorial meeting, at Cooper Institute, New York, and Proctor Knott will deliver the funeral oration, on October 10.

A comparison of the new Johnson directory with the old one develops the fact that the number of persons drowned was greatly exaggerated. A close calculation now places the lost at 3500.

There are very few of us who can make a stronger argument for locating the World's Fair than editor Pulitzer of the New York World, who has offered to subscribe $100,000 to have it in Gotham.

Ex-Gov. Knott has been invited to deliver on Oct. 10th a set eulogy of the late Sunset Cox, who was his fast friend when they were in Congress together. Of course the duty will be well performed.

A. R. Campbell, of Kansas, is the latest suggestion for Commissioner of Pensions. Unlike some of the other gentlemen offered the place, Mr. Campbell wants the job and is humbling himself to get it.

Emmons Blaine, son of his father, has married Miss Anita McCormick of Chicago, a daughter of the deceased millionaire machinist. Young Blaine is now rich enough to cut a wider swath than the old man's reaper.

Five persons were killed and many others wounded in a wreck on the New York Central road Saturday. Among the killed was W. H. Manning, of Michigan, a bridgegroom of three weeks. His wife was also hurt but not fatally.

Dan O'Sullivan's new paper appeared to be so well informed about the gamblers it was herding that the Jefferson county grand jury summoned the editor to tell what he knew. They found his knowledge was not direct enough to frame indictments on.

Joe Manhattan has gone to New Mexico to engage in a mining enterprise in the northwestern part of the Territory. Lookout for reports of wonderful excavations, underground cities, mummified giants, mastodon skeletons, etc. With new territory to expand itself, there is no telling the possibilities of Joseph's gifted imagination.

A number of young ladies of Evansville who say they are charming daughters of highly esteemed citizens, have published the following card in the Tribune:

"A company of young ladies have decided to resign from all matrimonial intentions and have accordingly organized an Old Maids' League. It can be said to their credit that they adhere to the regulations, enjoying life's sweetest pleasure amongst themselves. They will be known by their odd costumes and badges. The Stewart Company, of New York, have their order for the badges. They have banished all male friends."

The names signed are "Sister Hazel," "Sister Adeline," etc., and are evidently assumed. Of course all that these giddy young creatures want to make them renounce their "League" is a chance to get married.

Some of the raciest reading that has been in the papers lately is the Tanner-Dalzell correspondence. "Corporal" Tanner wrote a private letter to his personal friend "Private" Dalzell, ripping the administration up the back and pouring a tale of woe into Dalzell's ear about his "resignation" from the Peacock office. This interesting document was given to the press, and Tanner wired his confidential friend to know how the letter happened to be stolen. To this Dalzell replied that the letter had been published deliberately and intentionally to show up "Sherman, Taylor, Harrison and others," and he concluded by praising Tanner for "exposing to public contempt the traitor who, by his treachery and falsehood, betrayed us both, and with us the entire comradery, who raised them from the dunghill to the throne of power."

THE CRAFT.

Young E. Allison's long-expedited story is in the October Century.

W. Morris will publish "The Sun" at Augusta.

Duke Bowden, of the Itasca, will shortly move to Louisville to practice law.

The labor unions of Louisville began publishing an official organ last week called "The New Era," which is edited by E. L. Crunk. It appeared Saturday for the first time.

The Young Men's Editorial Association will meet at Bowling Green October 25th and 26th, when a full representation is desired and expected. Those who wish to attend will please send their names to Secretary E. C. Walton, of the Interior Journal, at once, so that he can arrange for their transportation. Our exchanges will confer a favor by copying this so that all may be apprised of the matter.—Interior Journal.

The Owensboro Inquirer in a long article opposing early nominations says:

"Why a good citizen might become a rascal, a bright intellect might become a chaos, a teetotaler might develop into a drunkard, a moral exemplar might become a gambler, a pattern of rectitude might become the friend of the law-breakers—these and many other things might happen in a year, to say nothing of the folly of shutting ourselves out from all the opportunities of a twelve-month."

Mr. Frank Bell, city editor of the New Era, has been appointed to write a paper to be read before the Young Men's Editorial Association at Bowling Green on the 25th inst. His subject is "Old Fies" and no one who knows Mr. Bell will doubt his ability to prepare an exceedingly readable paper on this theme. He is one of the bright young men on the Kentucky Press whose light is hid under a bushel, from the fact that his name does not appear in the paper. It is known though to those in the inside that much of the best work in the New Era is from his facile pen.

The following is given out as a complete list of the Maids of Honor of the Sallieville hall, at Louisville selected with special attention to beauty: Misses Selenah Barrett, Annie Hall, Margaret McMerron Beale, Newman, Julia Umberg, Josephine Stickney, Mary Tillman, of Louisville; Misses Bertie Briggs, Russellville; Kate Bowmer, Cloverport; Ida Calbonne, White Sulphur Springs; Battle Craig, Danville; Lilla McGroodwin, Princeton; Carrie Little, Paducah; Mamie Scott, Frankfort; May Taylor, Georgetown; Maggie Thompson, Owensboro; Maggie Clark, Paris; Louise Trigg, Glasgow. Of course no effort was made to select the prettiest of all the pretty girls in the state, or Christian county would have been called upon to furnish at least half the desired number.

Mr. Homer Prince, editor of the New Era, will shortly be succeeded by Mr. Jas. R. Wood, a brother of the proprietor. Mr. Prince has made a full demonstration of his fitness for journalistic work. He is a courteous, affable gentleman, a graceful writer and is thoroughly familiar with all departments of newspaper business. The Kentucky would regret to see him lay down the work for which he is so well qualified and hopes to see him again in the harness in the near future.

CIRCUIT COURT NEWS.

A Round Dozen.

Following is a list of those elected to represent Christian county in the penitentiary at Frankfort, at the recent term of Circuit Court:

Walter Duncan, murder, 8 years. Wm. Venable, mule stealing, 2 years.

Zeb Childress, store breaking, 1 year. Andrew Foard, col., grand larceny, 1 year.

Geo. Tucker, malicious cutting, 5 years.

Jim Dade, col., malicious cutting, 5 years.

Elisha Malory, col., kukluxing, 1 year.

Dick Darden, col., kukluxing, 1 year.

Walter Grant, col., knknxing, 1 year.

Parker McCombs, col., burglary, 7 years.

Forrest Cheatham, col., store breaking, 1 year.

Renzle Stanley, col., manslaughter, 2 years.

In addition to these, the following were convicted and sentenced to the county workhouse:

Quint Tyler, larceny, 10 months.

Ike Griffey, " 6 months.

Henry Weston " 12 months.

The verdict in the case of Dick Darden was set aside and the prisoner released. The cases of Walter Duncan and Parker McCombs have been appealed and they will remain in jail for 60 days pending appeal. Sheriff West and four guards left this morning for Frankfort with the other.

CIVIL.

Birdie Duval, orphan boy, adjudged a lunatic by a jury.

Jno. T. Edmonson, sworn in as an examiner for Christian county.

An order was made extending the term for one week longer, for the trial of equality causes.

Syrup of Fig.

Produced from the laxative and nutritive properties of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectively cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

CLOSED FRIDAY.

The W. C. T. U. State Convention Adjourns.

Friday last, when the convention closed its work, was occupied chiefly in the election of officers for the year ensuing and of delegates to the National Convention, which will meet in Chicago, November 7. That day is the anniversary of the formation of the Union as well as the birthday of Miss Frances Willard, the great apostle of the Women's Temperance Union. The convention wisely re-elected Mrs. N. E. Munnell, of Louisville, who showed great skill as an executive and presiding officer; Mrs. M. E. Rogers, Treasurer; Mrs. M. M. Givens, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. C. B. Mitchell, Recording Secretary. Mrs. Frances E. Beachamp, of Lexington; Mrs. Linney, of Louisville, and Miss Bell Smith were elected delegates to the Chicago National Convention and Misses Willard Wallace, of Hopkinsville, and Sarah Randall alternates. Mrs. Dr. Saul, of Louisville, was urged for reappointment to labor among the L. & N. employees, by a petition from a large number of the employees. Resolutions were passed against the use of cigarettes and tobacco, and for the establishment of local option as introductory to State and National prohibition. Friends of temperance were urged to disown their principles in the Sunday schools. The White Cross order, for the promotion of purity of speech and life, was recommended, and the State was urged to make both sexes liable to the same penalties for the punishment of immorality.

During the forenoon Hon. R. T. Petree and Judge W. P. Winslow were formally introduced to the convention and acknowledged the honorable and appropriate. Manufacturing establishments were advised to change pay-day from Saturday to Monday.

The parting lunch spread for the delegates and a number of invited guests at Anderson's Hall was the most attractive of the three days session. The tables were spread with snowy cloth and covered with a tasteful array of appetizing dishes, meats, salads, jellies, pickles, catapans, preserves, celery, tea, coffee, milk, ice-water, ice-cream, and a great variety of cakes. The scene was a bourse-wife's triumph. At the close of the luncheon the guest of honor and Miss Nora Rogers, of the Hopkinsville Y. W. C. T. U. offered a toast to the incoming officers of the W. C. T. U. In appropriate terms, which was drunk in cold water. Mrs. F. E. Beauchamp responded to a toast to Hopkinsville for its bountiful hospitality.

On returning to the C. P. church the delegates assembled on the doorsteps, where an excellent photograph was taken of the group by Charlie Anderson. After transacting the remaining business the delegates formed a circle by joining bands around the President's seat, and sang in a feeling manner the parting song, "God be with you till we meet again," and adjourned.

The delegates made a favorable impression socially during their short stay, as modest, refined, cultivated ladies of a high order, whose sole purpose was the good of society. Their personal appearance presented nothing of the eccentric reformer, who seeks notoriety by peculiarity of garb. They were an assembly of well-dressed ladies, accustomed to the usages of the best society, and too well assured of their position in refined circles to countenance any sort of charlatanism. Many of them would be conspicuous in any social gathering for wit and intelligence.

Mrs. Beauchamp, Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. Munnell, Miss Clay, Mrs. Linney and many others will long be remembered as types of Christian women who command respect and admiration for their sincerity and demeanor in whatever field they labor.

Carthar Can't be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Carthar is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. If no Carthar can be taken internally, then directly to the heart and muscle surface. Hall's Cathee Cure is no queer medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in the country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonic known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the muscular surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients in what produces such wonderful results in curing carthar. Send for testimonials free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Prop., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, price 75c.

City Court News

Sam Davie, col., disorderly conduct, fined $5 and costs.

J. W. Barker, col., breach of peace, fined $15 and costs, sent to work house.

Geo. Buckner, col., breach of peace fined $30 and costs, sent to work house.

Julius Thompson, col., a. c. d. w. and shooting in city limits, fined.

Jno. Cook, drunk, fined $5 and costs.

Eliza Miller and Martha Hill, inciting language, acquitted.

Walter Merritt, breach of peace, fined $20 and costs.

Matilda Miller, grand larceny, acquitted.

Willy Candie, grand larceny, held to answer. Candie is only 10 years old and is held for stealing a very fine gold watch belonging to Miss Lucy Whitlock. He offered the watch for sale for $2, which led to his arrest and the recovery of the property.

The Cumberland Gap tunnel, just completed, is one of the largest and longest in the world. In passing through it you travel in Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia.

DUCMAN'S DEFENSE.

Walter Duncan Writes a Farewell Letter to the Public.

To My Friends:

After receiving my sentence of 8 years to be served in the state prison, I will write a few lines to my friends, perhaps these will be my last words to you. There will be many changes in the course of my long, weary years.

One time in its onward march shall have passed beyond the reach of 1897 and knocked at my prison door; I, perhaps will be resting beneath the sod. I go to my life work cheerfully, but health may fail me before it is done. Many may think my punishment light according to the so-called crime of which I am charged. Allowing me to remind you, there are two sides to every question.

And while on earth if I am fate to be waited by the scorching words of an unjust prosecuting attorney far beyond the reach of justice I am condemned when I think of that day when I with my friend and foes stand at the great judgment bar, and when my case is placed on file in the courts of heaven hear the God of Justice proclaim, not guilty. Then it will be that an avenging justice shall meet the false witnesses against me and wreak his vengeance by launching them on the fiery hillocks of destruction to meet the doom they had maliciously challenged.

Some of the persons were prejudiced against me, perhaps by the fiery, irritated and unjust eloquence of a fame-seeking attorney. Some with reason weighed the evidence and were anxious for my acquittal. Some desired to fix my sentence at 90 years, in prison. I would have preferred a life sentence to that of 90 years, for in the former I could realize while dying I had fulfilled what had been allotted me.

I am not guilty of perpetrating a crime. In self-defense (on the 12th of August, 1888) I took the life of Charlier Fleming. Some censure me for handling him after I had given the death stroke, but this I did for his comfort, as there was nobody else who offered to assist. During the struggle I sympathized with him, but he was not hatred or anger in my heart. I only acted as I was compelled to do to preserve my own life.

I prayed that ere his spirit departed it received forgiveness.

My great sorrow is in leaving my little fatherless niece who was given to me to raise. Oh, how I had learned to love her! How I shall miss the sound of those little feet as she need to run to meet me, and entwining her loving little arms around my neck nestling close to my side! But now I must leave her; perhaps never again will I bear the lit'seping voice of Lula say, "Uncle, Walter, I believe you are innocent." But God stands with the shadow, keeping watch above his own, I command him to his grateful and loving care.

In this, my friends, allow me to meet again in life may we meet where the sublime radiance of God shall light our paths to the bosom of his mercies. My last wish is "Peace on earth, Good will toward men".

Kindly Yours,

WALTER S. DUNCAN.

Excellence of Grain, Perfection of Water, Expert Knowledge of all the best Methods of Distillation, Extensive Experience, Abundant Capital, Complete and Expensive Equipment and High Purpose, all these are used in the making of

HARPER'S NELSON COUNTY, KY. WHISKY,

for which we have secured the so e agency.

EDMUNDSON & LONG,

Hopkinsville, Ky.

SOUTH CHRISTIAN.

BEVERLY, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Blanchard, of Marion, Miss., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. T. Mason.

Miss Grace Barr, a young, fascinating brunette, of Bowling Green, is visiting her sister, Mrs. P. P. Huff.

Miss Minnie Mason and Tommie Deason left for Rome, Ga., on the 21st, Inst., where they will attend shorter college.

Mrs. Burbank and son, of Cincinnati, are visiting Mr. B. M. Hunt's family.

Messrs. Davis & Willis have contracted with Mr. Itchard, a blacksmith work here. He will be thankful to receive a liberal share of the public patronage.

Mr. Charles Watkins departed this life on the 22nd Inst. Deceased was about forty years old, an excellent, honest, straightforward gentleman. He had been managing Mrs. Rose Coloma's farm for several years past, having had with congenion of the lungs, and had only been sick a few days. The writer extends his heart felt sympathy to the three sisters and a host of friends who are left to mourn his loss.

Miss Laura Harvey, of Longview, is attending school at Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

THEO. E. CARTLEY, Business Manager
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1889.

PERSONAL Gossip.

Mr. F. L. Hancock, of Henderson, is in the city.

Mrs. R. L. Woolfolk is visiting her mother, Mrs. Wheeler.

Miss Mary Burnett, of Paducah, is visiting the Misses Woodbridge.

Miss Sarah Dagg has taken charge of a school in Todd county, near Fairview.

Esq. T. H. Major, of Beverly, has been appointed storekeeper under Collector Coland.

Miss Lou Landier has returned to her home in Louisville, after a visit to friends in this county.

Rev. J. W. Crawford and family will leave on the 10 o'clock train this morning for Elizabethtown, Kansas.

Mrs. Allan M. Wallace and daughter, Misses Alberta and Lizzie, went to Louisville this morning on a visit to relatives.

Rev. J. W. Lewis, J. W. Bigham and Judge John McCarron attended Conference at Morgantown last week.

Rev. J. T. Barrow left yesterday to help Dr. E. N. Dicken in a protracted meeting at Mt. Zion, near Trenton, in Todd county.

Rev. J. O. Rust preached his final sermon Sunday to very large congregations. He left yesterday for Louisville.

Mr. Jas. R. Wood has returned from Owensboro with his family and will shortly assume editorial control of the New Era.

Mr. Julius A. Konetzka and wife, of St. Louis, are in the city, and will locate permanently. Mr. Konetzka will associate himself in business with J. H. Durando.

Miss Alice Hays returned from the eastern cities Saturday, where she had been for the ten days past engaged in purchasing Millinery goods.

Mr. Russell H. Hopkins and family of Athens, Ga., have been visiting Mr. J. M. Hopkins for several days. This is Mr. Hopkins' first visit to his father and friends here in several years.

Mr. J. A. Rogers and wife, late of Bardstown, are visiting the family of Mr. G. W. Gardner. Mr. Rogers has until recently been in the revenue service, but lost his place when the administration changed.

Mr. Cunningham of the faculty of Shorter College, Rome, Ga., who has been on a visit here, returned home last week taking with her two young ladies, daughters of Messrs. W. B. and C. T. Mason, who will enter Shorter College.

The McCollin Opera Co.

This excellent company will be at the Opera House Thursday and Friday night of this week. They carry 38 artists and their own orchestra. The Sacrament Mail says: "To the Company, nothing but praise can be given; they all sing excellently and the general effect is very fine. A feature of this Company is the strength of the Chorus and the precision with which they do their work. The costumes are all that have been promised."

DEATHS.

Mr. Thompson C. Frutti died at his home in this county, about 7 miles from town on the 27th inst., at the advanced age of 80 years. He was a native of this county and leaves a large number of descendants. His funeral on Saturday was largely attended.

Mr. Geo. L. Torian, of Trigg county, died at his home near Roaring Spring last week, aged 85 years.

Joe Bolin, the tailor, died in Clarksville Friday.

Another prominent citizen of Morganfield, Wm. Waller, dropped dead of heart disease last week, at that place.

Wednesday night a party of mowers from East Tennessee bound for Texas camped near Mr. Ike Taylor's. A passing train frightened an old lady named Simma so badly that she fainted and all efforts to resuscitate her failed. She died in a few hours. The cause was heart disease.—Prince-ton Banner.

Miss Virginia Jackson, an 18-year-old daughter of Robt. Jackson, died of consumption in Montgomery County Tenn., last week.

Mr. Fulton F. Fuqua, of Lafayette, a young man about 25 years of age, a son of the late T. J. Fuqua, died Sunday morning at 5 o'clock. He was a brother of Mr. W. W. Fuqua, of this city. The interment took place yesterday at Lafayette.

A 5-year-old son of Col. M. D. Brown died of diphtheria, Saturday morning.

Infant of Kitty Barnett, in the city of Dan Phillips, aged 61, in the house, on Sept. 25th.

Child of John Cavo, on the Princeton road, Friday.

A two-year-old child of a colored woman named Lizzie Coleman was killed Thursday evening by drinking concentrated lye, which had been carelessly left where it could get hold of it. The mother was on of the room at the time. Death ensued in a very few minutes.

A Royal Pass.

The beautiful scenic play, "A Royal Pass," which will be given at the Opera House to-night, has met with much praise wherever it has been produced. It is far above the ordinary and those who attend will be entirely satisfied.

The coming fair is now the topic of conversation on every hand.

CREAM OF NEWS.

A Burglar's Close Call. Some nights ago a burglar entered C. R. Clark's saloon and stole a box of cigars. Since that time the clerks who sleep over the grocery store in front have been on the lookout for similar intruders. Sunday night between 12 and 1 o'clock the young men, Wood Twyman and Will Johnson, were awakened by hearing the noise of a window being raised. They listened and soon heard liquor gurgling in a jug. Steadily going to the back steps descending into the bar room, they went down far enough to see a man in a stooping posture drawing whisky from a barrel against the partition dividing the room from the grocery. Twyman raised his pistol and fired, but at that instant the man straightened up and the bullet missed him and went into the wall behind him. The burglar fell back through the folding blinds as another ball hit him just above his head. Twyman pursued him into the front room but he dodged behind the counter and ran in a stooping posture through the bar and leaped out at the open rear window before Johnson, who was stationed at the foot of the steps, could get a shot at him. Johnson fired three more shots at him without effect and he escaped into the darkness leaving two jugs behind him. The young men could not see well enough to tell whether the man was white or black and up to yesterday at noon no one to his identity had been discovered.

Burnt by a Vicious Horse.

Rev. A. W. Meacham, of Belleville, was badly hurt Friday by a vicious horse. The animal, a spirited stallion, had escaped from one of the hands who had been riding it. Mr. Meacham found him in the field and the stallion furiously attacked the horse he was riding, a young colt, and while on the ground trying to keep them apart he was thrown down and one of his shoulders dislocated. He was otherwise considerably bruised and one elbow hurt. He finally, after being injured, separated the horses and was able to get to the house. Dr. Darwin Bell was summoned and reduced the dislocation, but the wound threatens to prove of a very serious character. Mr. Meacham is nearly 72 years old and though in good health, his injuries are not healing rapidly; he is still unable to move himself in bed and suffering the most intense pain.

A Fama Tramp.

A colored woman dressed in male attire was arrested Thursday night on a charge of vagrancy. She carried 38 articles and their own orchestra. The Sacrament Mail says:

"To the Company, nothing but praise can be given; they all sing excellently and the general effect is very fine. A feature of this Company is the strength of the Chorus and the precision with which they do their work. The costumes are all that have been promised."

September Arrests.

Drunk..... 24
Breach of Peace ..... 9
Disorderly Conduct ..... 5
Tramps ..... 3
Capias ..... 1
Fast Riding ..... 1
Aiding escape of felon ..... 1
Interfering with arrest ..... 1
Shooting in city limits ..... 1
Insulting language ..... 1
Keeping saloon open on Sunday ..... 1
Grand Larceny ..... 2

Total ..... 51

Number in August 55.

ALEX. CAMPBELL, Chief.

Cut With a Corn Knife.

Thos. B. Robertson, a farmer of Montgomery, Trigg county, was badly hurt Saturday. He was engaged in cutting corn, when he made a mistake with the corn-knife and cut his leg. An artery was severed and Robertson was rapidly weakening from loss of blood when Dr. D. Bell, of Gracey, reached him and attended to his wound. At last his strength was getting along nicely, though he will be laid up for some time.

The Colored Conference.

The 21st annual conference of the colored Methodist Episcopal church closed its session Sunday. Many visitors were present from neighboring cities and towns. The preachers who organized a union temperance afternoon Sunday school under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. An organization was not effected, but a committee of ladies was appointed to make arrangements and another meeting announced at the same place for next Sunday evening. All persons interested in Sunday school work are invited to be present.

Capt. Sam Stites, for several years with the L. & N., but now with the Ohio Valley, met with a painful accident at Princeton last week.

While attempting to set a brake, he slipped and fell from the top of a freight car to the ground. His head was badly hurt by the fall and he narrowly escaped being run over, as he fell in front of the car. His heel was badly bruised by one of the wheels passing over it. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and carried to the depot, and his wounds dressed. He was able to be taken to Henderson the next day.

Taken to His Home.

Mr. Gillum East, of Lafayette, the gentleman who was hurt by a fall from the porch of the Main Street Warehouse last week, was well enough to be moved to his home Friday. He was taken on a bed in a spring wagon and, so far as learned he had no bad results followed his long ride of twenty miles.

A Royal Pass.

The beautiful scenic play, "A Royal Pass," which will be given at the Opera House to-night, has met with much praise wherever it has been produced. It is far above the ordinary and those who attend will be entirely satisfied.

Prices as usual.

The coming fair is now the topic of conversation on every hand.

HERE AND THERE.

With favorable weather the coming fair is sure to be a complete success.

Robt. M. Wooldridge, livery and stable, Fritz's stand. Telephone 44.

The Baptist Circle Meeting at Olivet Saturday and Sunday was a pleasant affair.

The young people had a storm party at Mr. C. O. Gold's Friday evening.

Mr. Thos. H. Carlos has been appointed an Asylum commissioner, Vice Lucia Jones, resigned.

We want two well-preserved copies of the Kentuckian for each of the dates of Feb. 12 and July 16, 1889.

Dr. T. W. Forshee, who formerly visited this city as a specialist, has located at Madison, Ind.

Mr. J. J. Rye, of Clarksville, was ordained as a minister of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, last week.

II. B. Pollard has sold out his interest in the Cadiz bread wagon to Clarence Lindsey. He remains with the new firm as baker.

The cupola has been moved from the front of the Baptist church and the place covered over with the Fair ground. Tom Tatum escaped.

Cutting Scrape.

Yesterday afternoon Jas. Tatum was cut and otherwise seriously injured by his brother Tom, near the Fair ground. Tom Tatum escaped.

Fine Neuralgia Persons

And those from whom will remain by taking Brown's Iron Bitters. Genuine mark and crossed red lines on wrapper.

Mr. C. W. Ducker has improved the looks of his lot on Ninth street by putting handsome stone steps at his gate.

Read what Edmundson & Long have to say about fine brand of liquor that they are handling. They have the exclusive agency for it.

The sixth death from diphtheria occurred Saturday. There are three or four other cases in the city, two of them in the family of Mr. F. L. Waller.

A cabin on Mrs. Nannie Cox's farm near Belleville, was burned last Wednesday night. It was occupied by Ned Childress, col., who lost everything he had. The fire was started by a candle.

The horse captured near this city, which had been ridden by W. T. Brane, was called for by the owner a few days ago, from whom it had been stolen at Greenbrier, Tenn.

Max Solomon has an exhibition in his store a bunch of second-growth strawberries, raised in Judge Savage's flower house. They are full grown, thoroughly ripe and their flavor is perfect.

See advertisement of Wybrandt's studio, Louisville, elsewhere. For artistic work this establishment has no superior. Parties visiting that city will be benefited by giving Frank Wybrandt, the proprietor, a call.

Three large families of movers traveling in five-covered wagons, with fast stock and good new vehicles, passed through town yesterday en route to Southern Missouri. They were from about Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Jack Quarles, col., who enlisted at Garrettsburg last week had $2,600 insurance on his life. No cause has yet come to light, though there are rumors of some sort of trouble with Clarksville tobacco men, that may have induced Quarles to take his life.

A protracted meeting was begun at Olivet Baptist church near Garrettsburg, last Sunday, at which time five persons united with the church. Rev. J. G. Kendall, the pastor, will be installed this week by Rev. J. B. Shelton.

Dr. J. A. bonthall inserts a professional card in this issue. He has recently moved to this city from Illinois, Ky., and comes with several years' experience in his profession. We commend him to the public as a courteous gentleman and capable physician. His office is over the National Bank.

Jack Quarles, col., who enlisted at Garrettsburg last week had $2,600 insurance on his life. No cause has yet come to light, though there are rumors of some sort of trouble with Clarksville tobacco men, that may have induced Quarles to take his life.

A protracted meeting was begun at Olivet Baptist church near Garrettsburg, last Sunday, at which time five persons united with the church. Rev. J. G. Kendall, the pastor, will be installed this week by Rev. J. B. Shelton.

Dr. J. A. bonthall inserts a professional card in this issue. He has recently moved to this city from Illinois, Ky., and comes with several years' experience in his profession. We commend him to the public as a courteous gentleman and capable physician. His office is over the National Bank.

Accident tickets for $3,000 only 25c per day. No further use for assessment assurance. Term accident policies brought within the reach of all, and to the lowest possible cost compared with safety. If a party pays less than 25c per day, he cannot pay less than 25c per day paid up premium for more than he has paid in. $10,000.00 with $500.00 weekly indemnity costs only $42.00 per annum. For further particulars relative to Accident, Life, Storm and Fire Insurance and Loans on Real Estate inquire of

WALTER F. GARNETT,

At 3 o'clock p.m. last Sunday a few of the Sunday school workers of the city held an informal meeting at the C. P. church, the object of which was to organize a union temperance afternoon Sunday school under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. An organization was not effected, but a committee of ladies was appointed to make arrangements and another meeting announced at the same place for next Sunday evening. All persons interested in Sunday school work are invited to be present.

C. E. WEST & CO.,

The Sewing Machine Men.

I WANT TO SELL

A fine 3-year-old Jersey Bull, as I can't work him to the Sewing Machine Wagon, I will trade him for a good horse.

C. E. WEST,

The Sewing Machine Men.

FINE REDUCTION IN THE

PRICE OF INSURANCE,

to the sharp criticism of the public.

WATSON

the advertising columns as we are daily in receipt of new goods of choice quality at low prices and shall give OUR FRIENDS due notice.

C. McKEE & CO.,

"THE GROCERS."

GREAT REDUCTION IN THE

PRICE OF INSURANCE,

to the sharp criticism of the public.

WATSON

the advertising columns as we are daily in receipt of new goods of choice quality at low prices and shall give OUR FRIENDS due notice.

C. McKEE & CO.

"THE GROCERS."

GREAT REDUCTION IN THE

PRICE OF INSURANCE,

to the sharp criticism of the public.

WATSON

the advertising columns as we are

daily in receipt of new goods of

"CATCH-PENNY" SOAPS.

A nything that is the best of its kind is sure to be imitated, and at the fact that an article is counterfeited, is the best possible evidence of its value. There are scores of imitations of the Ivory Soap, which grocers are persuaded to buy because they pay more profit than the "Ivory" will. On account of this extra profit, the grocer represent them to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they are not, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

Copyright 1886, by Procter & Gamble.

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

16 AND 20 NINTH STREET,
HOPKINSVILLE, - KENTUCKY.

ADVERTISING RATES.

One inch, $1.00 per week, $1.00;
one-half page, $1.00; two pages, $1.00;
One column, $1.00; two columns, $1.00;
1x month, $1.00; twelve months, $10.00.

A BOSTON ROMANCE.

New Lovell, Waldron, Shafford, Her Ad
and Personal Perspective.

"Well—this—is this disappointment events in any modification of your plans for the future, Osgoodson?" said the young girl, softly, as she wiped her tears, replaced them with care, and looked through them in a regretful, sympathizing, almost tender manner at the downcast youth.

"My plans?" he replied, drearily.
"What are plans to me? Who can phonize to me of plans? Those answers I have just given you reduce to irremediable clues every nascant inchoative design projected by the stereopticon of earthen purpose on the screen of mental receptivity."

A shadow of pain flitted across the brow of the young woman. From whence she stood, on the inside of a gate.
Is the remnant of Boston's noblest manners, she looked out over the Common, were light-hearted; but mat-erid children were playing in the dog-eared, thoughtful, cultured, manner peculiar to the Boston child, and a feeling of pity for the young man who stood on the other side of the gate and leaned despondently on the post stirred her.

"Surely, Osgoodson," she said,
"there are other—"

"Waldron Field-Juncto!" he exclaimed, impetuously, "to the man who has glorified in his bosom for years the image of one who is to him the ideal and embodiment of all that is subjectively congenial in manly physically proper; as it were the crushing forever of his hope of being regarded reciprocally by the living, breathing reality of his cherished old-soul-shattered mortal prospective and obliterated every semblance of the horizon that once bounded his speculative firm-ment."

"While that may be indisputable, Osgoodson," rejoined the young man,
"there are other aspects, in which we should view the subject.
The stations in life we both occupy are humble, in the academic and fullofus of the world, but there is no reason why the outcome of this misguided preference of yours should lead you to abandon your calling."

"I understand you, Waldron," said the young man. "When you asked me if this decision of yours would make any change in my plans for the future I imagined you referred to my entertaining a preference for any other young lady. I shall make no change in my occupation, Waldron," he added, dejectedly, as he turned to go. "I expect to drive this milk wagon full summar, just the same."—Chicago Tribune.

"A horse with a bogie tail and a glass eye was sold the other day in Garrett County, West Virginia for $150."

AUSTIN, TEX., Nov. 5, 1887.—Mr.
Wm. Radam.—I have been suffering with what I call "Nervous Disease" for years and have been using many remedies, but without any benefit.
After I had taken three gallons of your Microbe Killer, I have been relieved and am entirely cured now, and I could recommend your Microbe Killer to those suffering with the same.

Respectfully,
AMANDA BERTRAN.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Houston, Texas, Oct. 9, 1888.—Wm.
Radam.—After using everything I ever heard of and trying the best doctors I knew of, I tried your Microbe Killer on my little girl for Catarrh and I am glad to inform you that two gallons made a complete cure.

Yours truly,
W. S. STEEL.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer cures Consumption. Call for circulars and testimonials at Buckner Leavell's.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN and
get the news, $2 a year.

WOLSELEY'S FIXED IDEA

The English Commander Discusses the Merits of General Conscription.

Lord Wolseley, the only General England is supposed to have in reserve for a great campaign, is an eloquent advocate of universal military service.
In an article in the Fortnightly Review he refers to this system as a precious legacy bequeathed by the first French revolution to Europe, and then proceeds to enlarge upon the benefits which are conferred upon the nations of the continent by standing armies and general conscription. He takes the German army as the highest existing type of modern system of military organization, for which the changes of focussed the wars of French revolution opened and prepared the way, and he expresses profound admiration for it as a soldier, and still more as a citizen.
"Great as it is for war," he exclaims,
"it is infinitely greater as a national school for the moral, mental and physical training of the people." The German army, in his judgment, is a national blessing. It supplies a permanent system of physical training for men, which promotes habits of cleanliness, order and obedience, and affords a moral education that could with difficulty be furnished in any other way. It teaches all those virtues which serve to make men good subjects and law abiding citizens. It is alike the strongest bulwark against communism and the greatest of peace institutions. Universal military service in Lord Wolseley's judgment is not only the direct outcome of the revolution of 1789, but its most valuable result.

Englishmen will be startled to learn that instead of slogging Europe a good portion of its obdurate refraining from participating in the military movement of the last thirty years, they have neglected to make use of one of the grandest opportunities of modern civilization.

They have set their faces sternly against the policy of maintaining large standing armies, had compelling every man physically fit for service to spend several years in barracks and with the reserves. Their greatest soldier tells them plainly that they are depriving the English people of the incomparable advantages of physical and moral training in the best school of citizenship; that German civilization is vastly superior to their own, and that one of these years they will learn under the pressure of necessity the great social and political revolution of the last century.

It is fortunate that the English-speaking race has had wiser and more philosophical mentors than this impatient hero of the Ashante war, Tel-Kebir, and the disastrous desert campaigns on the Upper Nile. Washington, Wellington and Grant were soldiers superior in every respect to this obdurate admirer of existing European camps and tactics, and they abhorred war and military life and loved arts and industries of peace. Lincoln united with Gadsden and Bright in condemning war and standing armies as allied forms of barbarism alien to the genius of Christian civilization. If Lord Wolseley were a more genuine and consistent Englishman he would not be loud extolling the virtues of military conscription and barracks life.

FIRST DAY—FORENOON SESSION.

1. The o'clock A. M., call to order by the President.

2. President's Annual Address.

3. Welcoming Address by the Major of the City.

4. Response by Thos. W. Scott,
Franklin county.

5. The Kentucky Farmer—It his Occupation a Paying One? If not, Why?

This subject is left for general discussion, and members are requested to come prepared to give their views.

EVENING SESSION.

6. Call to order 8 o'clock P. M.

7. Should the State be asked to extend financial aid to the Kentucky Farmers' Institute? By James Montgomery, Elizabethport.

8. Noxious Weeds, and how to exterminate them; Hou. Wm. Cook, Bowling Green.

SECOND DAY—FORENOON SESSION.

9. Work of the State Experiment Station; Prof. M. A. Scovell, Director of the State Experiment Station, Lexington, Ky.

10. Lamp for Early Market—
How best to Treat Egg and Lamb for profitable results; Geo. W.
Crum, Jefferson county.

11. Market Gardening; L. A.
Freeman, Aurora.

12. Selection of Seeds; A. P.
Farnsle, Jefferson county.

13. Tobacco Growing—in the Burke District, Knob Brown, Owen county—in the Green River District; John G. Barkley, Muhlenberg county.

14. Wheat at Seventy cents per bushel. Does it Pay? Richard Waters, Jefferson county.

15. Fungus Diseases of Stone Fruit; Prof. W. H. Garman, Entomologist and Botanist of the State Experiment Station.

EVENING SESSION.

16. Horses and Mules. How to Raise and Hand for Profit; D. J.
Phillips, Bowling Green, Ky.

17. Cattle—The best Breeds for this State; N. B. Dudley, Logan county.

18. Sheep and Swine—W. I. Sam-mons, Bardstown.

19. Skin and Endoscopy—Henry M.
Lytle, Shelby county.

20. Orchard for Family and Market; J. C. Alexander, Warren county.

21. Small Fruits—For Family
Garden; M. B. Marion, Logan
county. New Varieties—A. D.
Webb, Warren county.

22. Election of Officers.

23. Pastures—Sowing and Management—Alabama, Shelby Co.

24. How can we Improve our Country Social Life; Dr. V. M.
Metcalfe, Hopkinsville.

25. Fertilization—Embracing the value of Barnyard Manure, Clover, Cover, and Commercial Fertilizers.
For General Discussion.

26. Monopolies—What Legislation do we need to Protect us against their Encroachments? Dr. J. D.
Clardy, Christian county.

27. How to Restore Worm Soil;

The subjects will be called in the order named. Where the member appointed to prepare a paper is not present, or has sent no paper, the subject will be discussed by the Institute.

THIRD DAY.

28. Election of Officers.

29. Pastures—Sowing and Management—Alabama, Shelby Co.

30. How can we Improve our Country Social Life; Dr. V. M.
Metcalfe, Hopkinsville.

31. Small Fruits—For Family
Garden; M. B. Marion, Logan
county. New Varieties—A. D.
Webb, Warren county.

32. Cancer of the Nose.

"My father had cancer and my husband died of cancer. In 1870 a lung appendicitis, a nose and throat operation and my growth. I became alarmed with the idea that I, too, had cancer. I consulted my physician about it, and he gave me an ointment to put on it; when this did not relieve me, he then hurried out, but the place would not heal.
It gradually grew longer and worse, and I had fully made my mind up that I must die of cancer. Friends prevailed on me to try Swift's Speci-(S. S.) for it. I was fully convinced after taking a few hours it was entirely cured. Swift's Speci-(S. S.) cured me when the doctors and all other medicines failed."

Mrs. M. T. MAREN,
Woodbury, Hall County, Texas.

33. The subjects will be called in the order named. Where the member appointed to prepare a paper is not present, or has sent no paper, the subject will be discussed by the Institute.

It is especially recommended that the essayists prepare their papers carefully in advance of the meeting, and should they be unable to be present, to mail them to the Farmers' Institute, Bowling Green, Ky.

Very respectfully,
C. Y. Wilson,
Commissioner, &c.

A Lady in South Carolina Writes:

My labor was shorter and less painful than on two former occasions; physicians astonished; I thank you for "Mother's Friend." It is worth its weight in gold. Address The Bradfield Reg. Co., Atlanta, Ga., for particulars. Sold by all druggists.

W. STEEL.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer cures
Consumption. Call for circulars and testimonials at Buckner Leavell's.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN and
get the news, $2 a year.

W. STEEL.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer cures
Consumption. Call for circulars and testimonials at Buckner Leavell's.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN and
get the news, $2 a year.

W. STEEL.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer cures
Consumption. Call for circulars and testimonials at Buckner Leavell's.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN and
get the news, $2 a year.

W. STEEL.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer cures
Consumption. Call for circulars and testimonials at Buckner Leavell's.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN and
get the news, $2 a year.

W. STEEL.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer cures
Consumption. Call for circulars and testimonials at Buckner Leavell's.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN and
get the news, $2 a year.

W. STEEL.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer cures
Consumption. Call for circulars and testimonials at Buckner Leavell's.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN and
get the news, $2 a year.

W. STEEL.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer cures
Consumption. Call for circulars and testimonials at Buckner Leavell's.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN and
get the news, $2 a year.

W. STEEL.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer cures
Consumption. Call for circulars and testimonials at Buckner Leavell's.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN and
get the news, $2 a year.

W. STEEL.

For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer cures
Consumption. Call for circulars and testimonials at Buckner